

SIU College of Business Residential MBA

Earning an MBA from the SIU College of Business proves that you are serious about your career, that you put in the time and effort it takes to be successful and that you are willing and ready to take an active leadership role in the world of business. Having your MBA degree will give you an advantage in the job market, but more importantly, it prepares you to make decisions with an executive perspective and maneuver in a global economy.

A business degree you can be proud of.

Our MBA program is fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International, the world's most prestigious business school accreditation organization. This seal of approval puts us in the top 5% of business schools worldwide.

Caring and Accomplished Faculty.

Our courses are taught by faculty who are known nationally and globally for their research and expertise. And, they are just as passionate about their students and teaching in the classroom. You will learn from the people who consistently advance and improve business practices and who are vested in your success.

We are here to support you through degree completion and beyond.

Our students have access to the only college-dedicated career center on campus. We will help you get ready for the big interview, polish your business savvy and connect you to a network of Saluki alumni who want to support your success as well as to companies looking to hire Salukis.

An MBA has real value.

What can an MBA do for you? It can make you more desirable in the workforce or help you launch your own company. About 70% of the MBA graduates worldwide are senior managers or board directors, experts in the field estimate. Whether you want to advance in your current field, pursue a new industry or start your own business, an MBA can give you the knowledge and skills you need to increase your chance of success.
